HALT AUTO FIRE

Redwood City firemen put out a $50 damage fire yesterday at 3:14 a.m. in the front seat of a car owned by R. M. Kimsey, 527 Jackson St. The fire happened at James Ave. and Iris St.

Local 'Teen-Agers Hold Dinner, Dance at Recreation Center Here

'Teen-Agers Recreation Group held a turkey dinner and dance on Saturday evening in the recreation center here. A Christmas motif was used in the decorations. Approximately 55 'teen-agers were present.

The Blue Notes Orchestra, composed of a group of Sequoia High School students, furnished the music for dancing and Loretta Duncan entertained during the evening with solos on the accordion.

Serving on the committee were Janice Leis, Colleen Kenny, Billy Alex Lavre, Reuben Masters, McClure, Bobby McClure, Carol George Mohun, Boyd Pierce, Darlene Standerup, Sally McClure,

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

One of our spies in the city hall stuck a message in a pumpkin which we later purchased at Territo's Market. In the privacy of our home we read: "City officials comprising the Traffic Fact-Finding Committee were pleasantly shocked to find Commuter Club officials agreeing with the committee's report on proposed regulations for handling depot traffic, as presented Friday night in City Manager Rolison's office."

★ ★ ★

From other sources we learned the committee expected a fight, especially on keeping two-way traffic on James St. near the depot. But the Commuters were "surprisingly reasonable" (a doubtful compliment!) Many of us are getting too old to fight. Actually, commuters are no different from people. Take a trainload of commuters, let them mingle in a crowded street with people, and you couldn't tell one from the other.

★ ★ ★

Seriously, as Pres. George Raubinger told the committee Friday night: "The Redwood City Commuters Club is deeply grateful to the city officials and members of the police department for this conscientious traffic study and for recommending what appear to be practical and sensible corrective measures. It is now up to the commuters themselves, and their wives who meet the trains, to cooperate and work with enforcing officers in making the new plan of depot traffic control effective."

★ ★ ★

The club's congratulations and thanks go to the following members of the fact-finding committee, all present Friday night: City Manager Rolison, Police Chief C. L. Collins, City Engineer G. M. Jain, Police Lt. Stanley Wood, Police Sgt. Cole Stafford, Planning Adviser Larry Wise, Administrative Asst. Dick Miller and Secy. Dolores M. Everson. Appreciation also to Councilmen Floyd Granger and Bert Morgan, who sat in as "observers." Present for the Commuters, besides President Raubinger, were Secy. E. James Smith, Jack Welch, Herb Nelson, Ray Johanson, A. Kimberley and yours truly.

★ ★ ★

One final word on depot traffic—to commuter wives: Remember, the new regulations (which were published fully in Saturday's Tribune) are for your convenience and safety. Won't you please cooperate with the handsome, young police officers who are there to help you? If they suggest your taking vacant places in parking lots while awaiting trains, do so cheerfully, knowing that one more car off the busy street in the rush hour will help speed up traffic for all. Let's prove commuters are people — considerate, thoughtful people!

★ ★ ★

Lots of business transacted at directors' meeting at Charles Woodmansee's home Tuesday night. . . . Atty. A. H. McGovern and Ray Spangler voted honorary memberships to play in Commuters orchestra. . . . V. P. Roy Fredlund named Santa Claus for the SP's special Christmas party car on the 7:28 train Dec. 24. . . . Walter Stevenson reported for the scouts committee. . . . Elmer Ross, chairman sick committee, announced Ed Horgan had gone to hospital for serious operation, and Harold Phillips had been banged up in an auto accident. . . . Carl Peter announced Cub Pack 16 would hold its Christmas party at McKinley School, Friday, Dec. 17, 7:30 p.m., parents invited. . . . Roy Cloud reported for transportation committee. . . . Bill McKeegan for underpass committee. . . . Paul Allen on program . . . and Jack Welch, entertainment. (Incidentally, Welch, Raubinger and Duke Martin are going to concoct the witch's brew served on the 7:28 Commuters Special Dec. 24.) . . . Stan Perkins distributed tickets for sale to Commuters annual Christmas party at Three Owls Saturday, Dec. 18. . . . Fred Jaeger agreed to furnish gardenias for the ladies.

The meeting at Woodmansee's was like old times. Lots of projects on the fire, and much enthusiasm. Twenty-five thirsty and hungry commuters partook of Charley's hospitality. Mrs. Elmer Ross assisted Mrs. Woodmansee and the latter's charming daughter, Yvonne, serve the refreshments. Caboose announced he had a letter from Wrex Cruse in Honolulu taking the former apart for washing the club's linen in the public launderette.

OF FLIGHT AND LIFE by Charles Lindbergh. An attack against scientific materialism, he presents and pleads for control of science, which has outstripped man, by a greater moral force. Brief and sincerely argued.

THE UNITED STATES AND CHINA by J. K. Fairbank. A compact, readable sketch of the development of Chinese social and political structure. It serves as a background for an outline of a definite, constructive U.S. policy toward China.

SURVIVAL OR SUICIDE by H. H. Moore. A summons to old and young to build a united peaceful world. Quotations from scientists, statesmen and economists present the problems, difficulties and proposals for international cooperation and organization.

PROFILE OF EUROPE by Sam Welles. The author presents his beliefs that Russia and the rest of the world can have a lasting peaceful relationship if America and the other nations will adopt a patient, firm and consistent policy.

EARLY TALES OF THE ATOMIC AGE by Daniel Lang. A reporter's visit to Oak Ridge, Los Alamos and Brookhaven. Human interest stories of the men who make atomic energy. Intelligible and fascinating to laymen.

THE WEST AT BAY by Barbara Ward. English analysis of the economic factors underlying Western Europe's breakdown in production, and a possible solution in the unification of the Western nations. Very important and timely.

WORLD POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY by Pearcy and Fifield. How geography influences the internal development and international relations of the countries of the world. Many maps and diagrams illustrate each section.

DINNER AT ANTOINE'S by F. P. Keyes. Long, richly flavored novel of New Orleans. When a group of people are invited to dine at Antoine's famous restaurant, a murder entangles the lives of all those present.

THE HEARTH AND EAGLE by Anya Seton. Marblehead is the real heroine of this long novel which spans several hundred years' history in the story of the Honeywoods and their ancestral home. Fine historical novel.

26th, 13th Districts Legion Auxiliary Give Party for Women Veterans

Twenty-sixth and 13th districts of the American Legion Auxiliary combined forces recently to hold a Christmas party for the patients in ward 7 at the Veterans Hospital in Palo Alto.

Patients in ward 7 are all women veterans and it has been the custom of both districts to give this ward a party each year at the holiday season.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Louis Casaretto, 26th district past president parley chairman, assisted by Lucy Balsamo, Adaline Constanta, Dolores Faso of Redwood City; Mary Porter, Mildred Mancini, Margaret Fitzgerald of East Palo Alto; Beatrice Camgros of Burlingame; Leslie Hansen of Daly City; Barbara Bush of Menlo Park; Laura Stetcher of San Carlos.

Merle Tobey of San Carlos accompanied the group on the piano as they sang Christmas carols.

Mrs. Frank Newman, district past president parley chairman of the 13th district, was in charge of gifts assisted by Mattie Young, Mary Batlewell, Jessie McKinney, Rudy Sherman and Marion Bonetti.

Peninsula B'nai B'rith Lodge, Chapter Plans New Year's Eve Party for Members and Friends

Music, dancing, laughter and assorted hi-jinks are some of the seasoned ingredients being planned for the holiday bill of fare to be served members and friends at the Peninsula B'nai B'rith Lodge and Chapter's New Year's Eve party in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Benjamin Franklin in San Mateo, according to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chandler, general chairmen of the affair.

The evening will begin at 10 p.m. on New Year's Eve with dancing to the music of Bob Brittain's Cafe Society Orchestra. A buffet supper will be served at 12:30 and dancing and other entertainment will continue until the "wee hours of the morning," according to the chairmen.

"Because this party entails large scale planning well in advance of the actual date, it is most important that reservations be made before the end of this week with Jack Wain, financial chairman," a spokesman said.

This event is being hosted to provide members with a ready-made holiday date and to raise additional funds for the related projects under B'nai B'rith auspices, the chairmen added.
